Inspecting Mining Property Here

C. G. Goss, a special representative of a large Salt Lake Mining Syndicate is a business visitor in Wrangell this week, having arrived down from the north the first of the week. With Mr. Goss is a Mining engineer Mr. S. F. Hunt who is now over in the Basin looking at the mining property of Marshal Grant and several others in that locality. The Company of Mr. Goss are interested in a large Silver and lead mine at Park City, Utah, and if the report of Mr. Hunt is favorable they will open up the Glacier Basin Property. Mr. Goss has been in Alaska for over a year and has looked at prospects all over the territory, having spent some time in the Shushana country which he states is all a bubble as there is not a paying proposition in the whole of the country. Mr. Goss states that this section of Alaska looks good to him and predicts great things for Southeastern Alaska and Wrangell in particular.

Once more the school children are in happy frame of mind as the public school started on the new term last Tuesday morning. The teacher for the High School has not arrived so that school was not called. Many of the children are still away from town so that the full enrollment can hardly be called before next week.

Fox Raiser Passes Through

James Pendergast, one of the business men of Telegraph came down on the Winifred last Saturday on his way to Victoria. Mr. Pendergast is interested with Mr. Hyland in the fox raising industry at that place. In speaking of the Fox Farm Mr. Pendergast stated that they now have 71 fox all told on the farm, of that number 25 are A-1 Black fox and the others are silver and cross. The farm covers about four acres but all of it is not used for fox as the company have the largest part of it under cultivation and according to Mr. Pendergast, have some of the finest spuds ever raised in the world besides a lot of other garden stuff. The land of course was very dry so they overcame this by irrigation bringing the water down from Deep Creek and first running it through the fox pens and then the overflow was turned into the garden, making the stuff grow like magic. There are two fox farms at Telegraph, and on the other one are 22 fox of all kinds.

In speaking of the mining in the Cassiar district Mr. Pendergast stated that it is getting brighter as many of the prospects are now being worked that have never before touched, but Mr. Pendergast's idea of the future of the country lies in a new strike which he looks for at any time, as the country is being prospected now as it never has been before, as several old Yukon miners are in the country around Dease Lake. Mr. Pendergast looks for a bright future for Telegraph and will return there as soon as his business will permit which will probably be late in the fall.

The Wrangell Machine Shop have added another most useful tool to their ever increasing machinery during the last month. The new machine is a Curtis & Curtis Automatic Pipe Cutting Machine, and the usefulness of this machine is very apparent to anyone who has seen it work. The new machine can be used for all kinds of pipe work, for cutting threads on pipes and all kinds of pipe fitting work. Katzenmeyer & Gingrass, proprietors of the Wrangell Machine Shop have added many new features to the plant during the past summer and certainly deserve all the machine work of this section and are prepared now to take any job from the largest to the smallest. The company are also boosting a new kind of packing that they have secured called Superheat Special Packing and from the demonstrations made by Mr. Katzenmeyer it sure is Superheat as there is no burn up to it.

Nome, Sept. 3—A heavy storm is sweeping this coast and city today and it now looks as if the disaster of last spring will be repeated.

Germans Close To Paris

London, Sept. 3—The Allied forces are desperately battling on the upper Oise, less than fifty miles from Paris. A great German army is trying hard to force an entrance into the city and it is feared they will accomplish their plan unless the reinforcements being rushed there from India arrive in time to save the city.

Turkey Declares War On Russia

London, Sept. 3—The official announcement was made here yesterday that Turkey had declared war on Russia. Turkey has a standing army of one million three hundred thousand seasoned troops and these turned loose on the southern border of Russia will mean that many of her troops that are now invading Germany will have to be hurried south to protect their own country.

Russians Win Great Battle

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3—The Austrian army was crushed yesterday in the great battle that raged for the preceding forty eight hours. Three million men were engaged in the terrible battle and it is the worst in the history of the world. The Russian forces penetrated the center of the Austrians and after cutting them in halves by their superior number overwhelmed the opposing forces.

Vienna, Sept. 3—The Austrian Generals in a message to the Government yesterday admit retiring before the Russians at Lemberg, but state that they were hard pressed and outnumbered two to one, there being two million Russians in the battle line against one million Austrians.

Paris, Sept. 3—The French center is holding back the advancing Germans with great difficulty and it is feared that they will take this city. The effort of the Germans yesterday to split the allies failed.

London, Sept. 3—According to advices received here yesterday from Russia they admit a small defeat on the German border.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3—The Russian forces are penetrating to the center of Prussia, and the German forces being unable to withstand the assaults are slowly retiring.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 3—It is estimated here that five thousand dead Austrian troops were left on the battle field at Galicia when the Russians beat the Austrians in the great battle at that place yesterday.

Stikine Trail Is Finished

Forest Supervisor W. G. Weigle was in town for a few days last week and while here went over and inspected the new Stikine Trail. He reports the work as about finished, all that is left is a little bridge and rock work. This new trail is one of the greatest conveniences that the government could give to the miners of the interior, and the Forest Service and Mr. Weigle in particular deserve great credit for the way they have overcome the many obstacles and built the trail. Signs will be posted on the river telling the travelers where the trail begins.

The Winifred arrived down the river last Saturday. Part of the cargo of the Winifred this trip is 1800 pounds of silver and lead ore from the Devils Elbow property of Messrs. Hamlin and Leeke. The ore will be shipped from here to the Grand Bay Smelter where a test will be made. The mine is reported very rich and much is expected from the test.

Rev. Mr. Thorman, of Telegraph Creek, will preach in St. Philips Church next Sunday evening. Those who heard Mr. Thorman two years ago were delighted and wait with pleasure hearing him again, and those who did not will surely want to hear him.

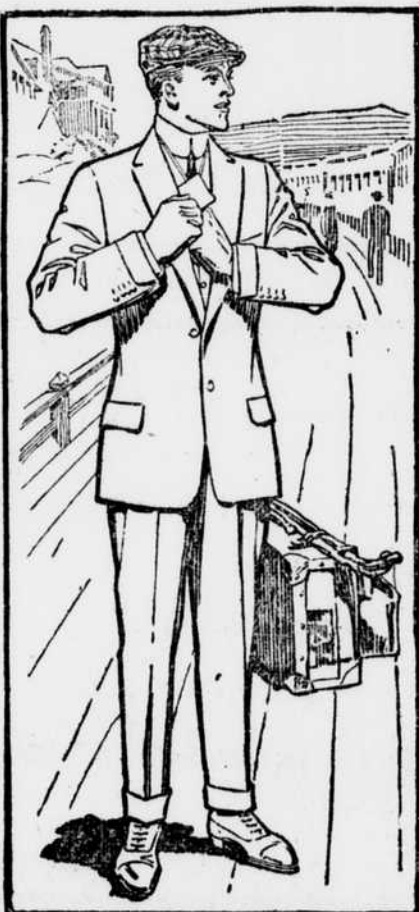

Entertainment Great Success

The Red Men's Entertainment last Saturday night was one of the biggest successes of the season. About two hundred people assembled in the Hall and had the time of their lives. The fore part of the evening was spent in playing cards, Mrs. Hood winning first prize and Mrs. McGehee second, for the ladies, and Mr. Hofstad, first and Mr. Johansen second, for the men. After the cards were over a bounteous luncheon was served, after which the party returned to the hall room where a very fine musical program was rendered. To do justice to the program we would have to mention each one separate but suffice to say it was one of the best ever rendered in the city. The Red Men and the Committee in charge can justly feel proud of the success and merits their order among the highest of the entertainers of the city.

C. F. Stagger, submarine diver who has been employed on the Curacao came over on the Prince of Wales yesterday and will leave on the first boat for Sitka where he goes to raise the halibut schooner Montana which sank near there last spring. Mr. Stagger has purchased the Montana and will raise her on his own account.

Now You Are Talking, Brother

Everybody has ideas of his own in reference to our needs in Alaska in the way of legislation so, naturally everybody--or nearly so--is a candidate for election to the territorial legislature. But what is the use? Why not be a little more broad minded? When we have an honest servant, why not keep him? For instance, to elect a man in place of Mr. Svindseth of Wrangell, is taking too long chances.

Mr. Svindseth has made a splendid representative, has been faithful and deserves the support of every broad minded man and women of his district. Any opposition to such a man may well be looked upon with suspicion, and should the opposition be looked into, selfish or other ill motives might be found which would explain to the discomfiture of the opponents.--Progressive.

Happenings of the War During The Past Week

Paris, Aug. 29—This city is in a mad confusion today, all business is at a standstill, and all the citizens are wandering around the streets eager for the latest from the front. The Germans are advancing toward the city, the British are holding the center lines with great difficulty as they are greatly outnumbered. It is believed here that the French army have turned their flank and are now covering the famous Gap of Treves and it will mean that the Germans will have to fight an awful battle before they can get to the city. It is understood here that the Kaiser is staking everything on his army getting thru to Paris.

Paris Aug. 29—It was reported here last night that the German army had succeeded in breaking through the second line of the allies defence in France.

London, Aug. 29—It is believed here today that the German army is as near to Paris as Philadelphia is to New York, about a hundred miles. The Germans are defying every defiance that the allies can give and are marching straight for that city.

London, Aug. 29—The officials of this city are in the deepest gloom today over the turn of affairs in the war zone, Premier Asquith, who plainly shows the extent of his feelings, stated today that the British troops are forced to flee everywhere before the fighting Germans as they are outnumbered five to one on the battle field, the losses on both sides have been enormous, and both countries are losing the cream of their manhood.

Vienna, Aug. 29—The official declaration of war between Austria Hungary and Belgium was given out by the authorities yesterday.

Berlin, August. 29—After nine days steady fighting the allied forces are in complete rout. Nothing seems able to stop the advancing Germans as they are breaking through the third line of the allies defence.

Berlin, Aug. 29—A large German army are pursuing the French from the Vosges Mountains into France. The battle cry of the French of a week ago of "On to Strassburg" is changed to the German war cry "Never to Strassburg."

Tokio, Aug. 29—The second flotilla of the Japanese navy is reported to have been caught in a great typhoon which struck the Yellow Sea yesterday. Several of the vessels are reported lost.

Berlin, Aug. 29—The War Office received word from officials at the front yesterday to the effect that all the allies everywhere in Belgium are fleeing before the advancing Germans.

London, Aug. 29—In a naval battle off Corfu yesterday a British cruiser sank an Austrian war ship. The battle lasted but ten minutes the big cruiser shooting her thru with the first broadside.

Tokio, Aug. 29—The government officials announced yesterday that as soon as the Japanese fleet have captured Kiauchau that Japan will withdraw from the war.

Berlin, Aug. 29—According to a dispatch received by the War Office here the German army have the English troops in Belgium surrounded at Maubeuge, and it is only a question of a few hours until all the English troops will either surrender or will be wiped off the face of the earth.

Berlin, Aug. 29 According to the best reports to be had the losses of the allies during the past twenty four hours fighting has been sixty thousand.

Antwerp, Aug. 29—Great damage has been done in this city by the bombs dropped from the German dirigibles. Hundreds of men, women and children have been killed.

Berlin, Aug. 30—The War Office issued the statement last night that Austria will withdraw her troops from Serbia and rush them against the more immediate danger of the Russians on the northern border. The Russians are in possession of several towns along the border.

Washington, Aug. 30—The government offices here received a dispatch yesterday evening which stated that the French had found twenty-five hundred dead German soldiers at Nancy and forty hundred at Vitrimon. The German army has left their dead and wounded on the battle field as in their advances they had no time to stop to bury them.

Paris, Aug. 30—A large detachment of British Marines have been landed at Ostend to protect the city from the Germans. If the Germans succeed in taking that city, Antwerp will shut off.

Washington, Aug. 30—According to information received here yesterday the Russian army is near Lemberg, Austria.

Rome, Aug. 30—According to advices received here yesterday, the German and Austrian forces have united at Basel.

Paris, Aug. 30—The Germans suffered great loss of life at Louvain running into the thousands.

Berlin, Aug. 30—Allenstein has received orders from the War Office to check the Russian advances at all cost and an additional army is being hurried to the front.

Berlin, Aug. 30—The news of this city yesterday printed the story of the defeat of five Russian Corps near the border line by the Germans.

Paris, Aug. 30—According to advices from London to the War Office here, there is several transport loads of native troops from India being rushed here with all possible speed to strengthen the British forces in France. The troops are all seasoned forces and have given a good account of themselves in other parts and are expected to make a good showing in the present conflict.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 30—The Russian troops now occupy Konisberg, a city in Germany about fifty miles from the border line. The Russian troops have crossed the Vistula River and large forces are moving through East Prussia as planned.

Paris, Aug. 30—According to a dispatch yesterday from the front the Belgian troops marched out of Antwerp Thursday and attacked the Germans near Brussels where the Germans were awaiting reinforcements. The Belgians succeeded in taking the city but their success was short lived as reinforcements arrived yesterday and the Germans after a terrible fight retake the city, the Belgians retreating back to Antwerp, and the German with a large body of reinforcements are threatening the entire Northern section of Belgium. The British forces are still surrounded but no engagement has started as yet but one is expected today.

Rome, Aug. 30—Under heavy pressure Italy is slowly bending towards war. The war ultimatum from Vienna is hourly expected.

Paris, August 31 The wildest kind of excitement prevails in this city and the inhabitants are living in terror of the German airships. Last night after the city had passed to rest all unsuspecting the danger, a German airship appeared over the city and dropped five bombs in quick succession in the very heart of the city, several people were killed outright and hundreds are in the hospital suffering from injuries, several large buildings are total wrecks, and the people of the city are walking the streets fearing night fall and another attack from the terrors of the air.

Berlin, Aug. 31—It was officially announced here today that thirty thousand Russian troops have been taken prisoners at Ortelsburg Hohenstein and Tennenburg yesterday by German troops. The announcement states that many Russian officers of high rank are in the number. This lightens the Russian forces on the German border and the Russians will have to wait for reinforcements before they again start their invasion of Germany. The losses on both sides were heavy.

London, Aug. 31—According to a rush dispatch this afternoon from Paris a great German army is marching towards that city and are now engaged in a terrible battle near Amiens; less than seventy miles from Paris. England has called for more soldiers and are rushing every available man to France.

London, Aug. 31—According to reliable news received from Germany the Kaiser has sent word to his troops in France to the effect, "You take Paris or all Germany will die in the attempt."

St. Petersburg, Aug. 31—The Russian army defeated a large body of Austrians near Amosce yesterday. No particulars of the fight are obtainable other than the losses on both sides were enormous.

Paris, Aug. 31—The French troops have started a furious attack against the Germans on the Lorraine frontier and also near the Alsace border to try to gain another pass into the Vosges Mountains.

Berlin, Aug. 31—The German troops have the French troops on the northern border hemmed in, the German forces are interposed between them and the coast and also Paris.

Washington, Aug. 31—All Americans in Brussels are safe according to dispatches received here today.

Weeks News Continued

Berlin, Sept. 1--The non combatant populace of this city is fleeing today on account of word being circulated this morning to the effect that the Russians would burn the city and all the inhabitants if they succeed in taking it. The Russians are showing the greatest cruelties to the German cities they have captured. It is reported that they murder defenseless women and children and burning the cities
to the ground.

Paris, Sept. 1--Four great German armies are pounding the French troops in the northern part of France, the allied forces are however slowly retiring towards the city. The Germans are merrily shelling the entrenchments
of the left flank of the army and it is feared that they will be forced to flee before the great superior forces.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 1--It is announced here that the German are stiffing their defence line along the border, but the German losses so far have been far heavier than the Russian and they are not able to withstand the terrible assaults of the Russian army.

Washington, Sept. 1--A War Tax was proposed today to be placed on baseball tickets, beer

Vienna, Sept. 1--The greatest battle in the history of the world and the bloodiest of the present war is being fought today on the northern Austrian border between the German and Austrian forces against the Russian army. The Germans are entrenched behind strong breast works and the Russians are forced to take to the open field where the Austrian and German field guns are simply moving them down like straw. The Russians have a great force there and as one section is mowed down
they send another to the same fate.
The outcome of the terrible battle
can not be guessed at, but the losses on both sides are tremendous.
It is reported that the Kaiser is hurrying to the scene with reinforcements.

Paris, Sept. 1--German biplanes dropped several projectiles on this city again last night but by some mysterious power of providence they failed to explode. The city is more quiet today many non combatants have left for cities further south. General Joffre of the French army stated last night that he did not believe the German army would get closer to the city than fifty miles, he gave no reasons for his opinion.

Antwerp, Sept. 1--The Belgium
forces plan to take the aggressive against the German forces in Belgium immediately as many of the German troops have been called to the advancing line in France. The German still have the English forces bottled up and they are awaiting the prospects of a large force
coming to their relief.

Washington, Sept. 1--In a dispatch this afternoon from Paris it states that the allies are trying to hold the Germans in the Vosges Mountains. Every pass in the mountains is in control of the Germans.

Berlin, Sept. 1--It is announced
here this afternoon that the German army have repulsed a large force of the enemy with heavy loss at Lafere on the eastern frontier.

situation on the eastern frontier is excellent.

beth of Belgium arrived here last night and will stay in London until the war trouble in her native country is over.

that the Germans will make a supreme effort all along the French border today. The Germans are driving the allied armies before them all along the frontier and are hourly getting further into France.

reached here this morning that the Germans are evacuating all the captured cities in Belgium and hurrying their forces towards France.

liable report from Germany,
Emperor Willigm has left for the Russian frontier.
